

COURSE DESCRIPTION

CROWD MANAGEMENT AND MOBILE FIELD FORCE INSTRUCTOR

Featuring experiences from small-to-large protests, acts of civil disorder to large-scale riots, the Crowd Management and Mobile Field Force Instructor course meets the needs of all sized agencies. Whether you are currently responsible for crowd management or anticipating the need for a mobile field force, this course has a lot to offer. This 3-day course is for both the officer and supervisors covering all aspects of crowd management. Defense Technology Academy gives the first responder the tools needed to complete the mission. Each student benefits from hands-on training, whether utilizing the riot baton, and riot shields, working as a line officer or team leader, during multiple exercises. We believe that openly discussing successes and failures better prepares the responder to succeed.
